

Weddings & Engagements

You are planning one of life's most profound moments—for both you and your guests. You've carefully curated the perfect mix of people, place, and passion into a one-day tour-de-force of love, serendipity, and nostalgia. As a photographer, it's a tremendous privilege to capture this precious day and transform it into a lifetime of treasured memories. I specialize in outdoor Vermont ceremonies, beautiful natural light, rich connection to place, authentic candid, creative (and efficient) posed portraits, and a refreshingly unobtrusive presence. I'm also committed to affordability. You've got enough to think about on your wedding day—price tag shouldn't be on the list. Thank you, and I look forward to hearing from you!
